Very Illustrious Brethren	5 x T. o. B.
All other Grand Officers	3 x T. o. B.

Only the most senior member present at a meeting is to be saluted.

5 Although the appointment of Grand Master is for life, he will serve only while his health and capacity permits. The Executive Committee is the sole authority to adjudicate on this matter.

6 The Grand Master is nominated by his predecessor, such nomination being given, in writing to the Grand Secretary and may be varied by the Grand Master, at his pleasure, from time to time. If no nomination is thus made, a nomination will be made by the Executive Committee.

7 Subject to any direction of the Grand Master a Deputy Grand Master shall in the absence of the Grand Master possess all the powers and privileges of that office other than the power to nominate a Grand Master. Should the Deputy Grand Master be unable to exercise said powers and privileges they shall be exercised by the Assistant Grand Master and should the same situation pertain, the most senior member of the Executive Committee.

8 Two Account Examiners shall be elected annually at a meeting of the Sovereign Grand Conclave.

9 Save at the discretion of the Grand Master a Brother shall not hold more than one office in Grand Conclave at one and the same time.

10 The Grand Master shall have, at his sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, the power and authority to confer on any Brother the "Secrets of the Chair", such conferral only being given by the Grand Master in person or, with his specific authority on each and every particular occasion, the Deputy Grand Master, the Assistant Grand Master or a Regional Governor and then only in the presence of at least two other Installed Preceptors.

11 The Grand Master may grant a dispensation, which shall be in writing, to cover any matter that may be for the benefit of the Order as he shall, in his sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, think fit other than to vary the basic qualifications for admission into the Order as set out in Para 32 hereof.

12 ROLE OF REGIONAL GOVERNOR

The Grand Master shall have the power to appoint Regional Governors who will have the duty and responsibility of superintending such Conclaves as the Grand Master shall determine from time to time.

A Regional Governor shall report to the Grand Master, on an annual basis, on the operation of the Conclaves under his charge, make such recommendations as may advance the Order within such Conclaves and advise the Grand Master on the potential creation of any new Conclave stemming from one of the Conclaves under his supervision.

A Regional Governor may, at his discretion, at the request of a Conclave under his supervision, issue a Dispensation, in writing permitting such Conclave to meet at a different venue and/or on a different date to that authorised in the By-Laws of such Conclave, provided always that if the change relates to a change of venue it must be no more than 10 miles from the venue stated in the Conclaves By-Laws. The Fee for such Dispensation shall be payable to the Region and at the rate shown in Appendix "B". All other matters requiring a Dispensation shall require a Grand Master's Dispensation and application is to be made to the Grand Secretary.

REGIONS

13 The Grand Master has power to constitute a Region in any specified area and to combine, divide or rearrange Regions or direct that a Region shall cease to exist. The Grand Master may direct that an existing Conclave, or Conclaves, shall form part of a Region or, as the case may be, cease to form part of a Region.

14 A Regional Governor shall be appointed by the Grand Master, by Patent. All Regional Governors shall be required to forward a report of the state of his Region, with such other general information as is of interest to the Grand Master, by 1st June in each year.

15 A Regional Governor shall by such Patent be granted powers and jurisdiction, to be exercised within the Region for which he is appointed, similar to those possessed by the Grand Master except as in these Constitutions and Regulations provided, but shall not assume such powers and jurisdiction until he has been duly invested and installed, after which he shall, in his Region, take precedence over all, save the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master and the Assistant Grand Master.

16 To ensure the regular performance of the duties of his office a Regional Governor with ten or more Conclaves may, at his discretion, by Patent, appoint a Deputy to execute all the functions of his office in his name and shall for this purpose, invest him with the requisite powers at pleasure. A Deputy Regional Governor shall, in his Region only, take precedence immediately after the Regional Governor.

17 If in any Region it shall appear to the Grand Master that due to the area of the Region, the means of communication, or other reasons that the Grand Master in his sole, absolute and unfettered discretion shall think fit, renders such a provision desirable, he may authorise the Regional Governor to appoint an Assistant Regional Governor. An Assistant Regional Governor shall, in his Region only, take precedence immediately after the Deputy Regional Governor.

18 A Regional Governor shall hold an annual Regional Conclave at which the appointment of Regional Officers shall be made, and at which a Regional Treasurer and Accounts Examiner shall be elected. He may hold such other Regional Conclaves as he may consider necessary. All such meetings shall be held within the Regional boundary unless a Dispensation, in writing, from the Grand Master shall have been granted. It may precede a Conclave meeting in the Region for logistical ease.

19(i) A Regional Governor shall cause Regional By-Laws to be adopted for his approval and the Regional Secretary shall submit them to the Grand Secretary for approval on behalf of the Grand Master.

(ii) Regional By-Laws shall specify the fees payable to the General Fund of the Region by Conclaves under its jurisdiction. These must not exceed the amounts stated in Appendix B(ii).

(iii) An account shall be kept of all monies received and expended by the Region and an Audited Statement shall be forwarded annually to the Grand Secretary.

20 A Regional Governor is empowered to appoint annually the following Regional Officers for which the Fees of Honour may be charged as provided in Appendix B(ii)

1] Regional Marshal 2] Regional Secretary 3[Regional Treasurer

21 An Annual Return of all Regional appointments must be forwarded to the Grand Secretary fourteen days after the date of the annual Region meeting.

CONCLAVES

22 (i) Every regular Conclave shall be warranted by Patent duly signed by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary. The Grand Master shall have, at his sole, absolute, unfettered discretion, the right and power to grant a Warrant for a Conclave and the said discretion, the right to suspend or cancel such Warrant with immediate effect. Notice of any suspension or cancellation of a Warrant shall be sent by first class post, to the last known Scribe of the Conclave concerned to the last known address held by the Order.

(ii) No Warrant for the first Conclave in a country outside the United Kingdom will be granted unless and until the Grand Master has been presented with full documentary evidence that the regular Royal Arch and Craft authorities within that country are in full amity with Supreme Grand Chapter of England and United Grand Lodge of England respectively and that they accept the establishment of a Conclave of the Order within their territory.

(iii) A Conclave cannot meet without a warrant of constitution from the Grand Master, which is to specially entrusted, at his Installation, to the Illustrious Preceptor for the time being who is responsible for its safe custody, and who shall produce it at every Meeting of the Conclave.

(iv) Copies of the Form of Petition for a Warrant are obtainable from the Grand Secretary and will be completed in duplicate, one copy to be forwarded to the Grand Secretary, through the Regional Governor where applicable, for the decision by the Grand Master, and one copy to be retained for reference by the organising Petitioners.
If the Petition is approved a Ceremony of Consecration of the new Conclave will be held under the direction of the Grand Master.

(v) Petitioners must have received the Degree of Preceptor and must on the date of signing the Petition be subscribing members of the Order. There must be at least 10 Petitioners for a new Conclave of which at least one shall be an Installed Illustrious Preceptor. Potential members of a new Conclave may, with the leave of the Grand Master, attend the Consecration providing that they are to be admitted to the Degree of Pilgrim immediately following the Consecration.

Potential Petitioners may, with the leave of the Grand Master, be admitted to the Order and registered as "unattached" members of the Order for a period of up to six months so that they may sign a Petition. Should the Conclave for which they were admitted not be consecrated within six months from their date of admission such "unattached" members must join an existing Conclave. Should any member of the Order having been admitted as "unattached" fail to become a member of a Conclave within 6 months he will automatically cease to be a member of the Order.

(vi) The Officers of a Conclave shall be invested by the Illustrious Preceptor at the Meeting in which he is Installed and shall be:

The Illustrious Preceptor
Excellent Preceptor
Worthy Preceptor
Chaplain Preceptor
Scribe Preceptor
Marshal Preceptor
Treasurer Preceptor (previously elected in accordance with Para 23(viii) of these Regulations)
Deputy Marshal Preceptor
Organist Preceptor (if required and available)
Keeper of the Portal Preceptor
Steward Preceptors, of which there may be up to 3
Guard Preceptor (who may be qualified on the same basis as for the Grand Guard)

(vii) Each Conclave shall frame proper By-Laws for its government, but no by-law or any alteration thereof shall come into operation until it has been approved by the Grand Master. The By-Laws and every amendment thereof must be submitted to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Grand Master.

(viii) The by-laws of a Conclave shall state the place and days of regular meetings, and shall specify at which regular meeting the election of the Illustrious Preceptor and Treasurer shall take place, and that at which the Illustrious Preceptor shall be installed. The by-laws shall also state the date on which the annual subscription becomes due.

(ix) Any member of a Conclave who is in arrears with his subscription for six calendar months or more shall be liable to exclusion from the Conclave, carried by the majority of those present, provided he shall have been duly notified, in writing by first class post addressed to him at his last known address, of his indebtedness. Exclusion shall be by resolution of the Conclave carried by a majority of those present. The Summons for the meeting shall contain an item to vote for the exclusion of a member due to arrears of subscription in excess of six calendar months. Immediately prior to the vote the Illustrious Preceptor shall state the name of the member concerned.

Any member thus excluded from membership shall cease to be a member of the Order, which must be notified, in writing to the Grand Secretary, who will notify other Conclaves where the member has a membership.
He can become a member again only by payment of the arrears within 12 months of the date of cessation, followed by a regular proposition and ballot according to Regulation 32.

(x) A copy of the by-laws shall be delivered to the Illustrious Preceptor on his Installation, who by his acceptance thereof, shall be deemed to pledge himself to observe and enforce the same.

(xi) The assets of each Conclave are vested in the Illustrious Preceptor, the Excellent Preceptor and the Worthy Preceptor for the time being in trust for the members. In the event of a Conclave ceasing to exist the Trustees are duty bound to act in accordance with the wishes of the former membership. They shall initially be responsible for identifying and securing all property and assets of the Conclave and shall thereafter report their findings to the Grand Master together with a plan for their disposal. The Trustees must thereafter have due regard to any observations of the Grand Master and any disposal of assets and property must be for the benefit of the Order in general.

23 To remain in regular membership of a Conclave, and, therefore of the Order, each member must remain a subscribing member of a Royal Arch Chapter under, or in amity with, The Supreme Grand Chapter of England, Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Scotland, or Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland and a subscribing member of a Craft Lodge under, or in amity with, United Grand Lodge of England, the Grand Lodge of Antient Free and Accepted Masons of Scotland, or Grand Lodge of Ireland. Any member of the Order not complying with this requirement shall be deemed no longer to be a member of the Order and, therefore of any Conclave.

24(i) Every Conclave shall annually on the day stated in its by-laws elect an Illustrious Preceptor by completing the required Petition form to install an Illustrious Preceptor signed by three members of the Conclave, and also shall elect a Treasurer and Account Examiner. The nominations for Illustrious Preceptor and Treasurer shall be shown on the Summons of the Election meeting, but if seven days before the Election meeting there is only one nomination for each the date of these offices at the date of the meeting the Illustrious Preceptor may declare that Brother elected to the respective office. Where there is more than one nomination on the Summons for either Office, or where another nomination is received within seven days of the date of the meeting, then the election shall be by secret ballot and be decided by a majority of those present.

(ii) No Brother shall continue as Illustrious Preceptor of the same Conclave for more than two years in succession unless by Dispensation from the Grand Master, but he may be again elected after he has been out of office for one year.

(iii) No Brother shall serve as Illustrious Preceptor of more than one Conclave at the same time, except by Dispensation from the Grand Master.

(iv) When a Brother is installed as Illustrious Preceptor for the first time the Installing Preceptor shall present to him a certificate confirming receipt of the High Degree of Illustrious Preceptor which he shall produce to the Installing Preceptor on each subsequent Installation as Illustrious Preceptor. (This Regulation shall only apply to Illustrious Preceptors installed after the meeting of Grand Conclave on 24th June 2017)

25(i) A brother shall not be eligible for election to the office of Illustrious Preceptor unless he has undertaken the office of Excellent Preceptor or Worthy Preceptor of a regular Conclave for a full year unless by dispensation of the Grand Master.

(ii) The Installation of the Illustrious Preceptor, shall take place in accordance with the by-laws of the Conclave. Any Illustrious Preceptor not so installed shall be so at the next meeting of the Conclave.

(iii) In the case of any difficulty arising over the election or installation of an Illustrious Preceptor the Grand Master's direction shall be obtained through the Grand Secretary.

26 Previous to the Installation of an Illustrious Preceptor-Elect, the Presiding Officer shall require his assent to the Constitutions and Regulations as prescribed in the authorised ritual.

27(i) A Conclave shall not hold any regular meeting otherwise than on the day and at the place specified in its by-laws unless by written dispensation from the Grand Master, except that in a Region the power of granting a dispensation for this purpose is delegated to the Regional Governor. The issue of such a dispensation under this Rule shall be notified to the Grand Secretary.

(ii) An emergency meeting of the Conclave, to be held at the regular place of meeting, may be called at any time by order of the Illustrious Preceptor, or in his absence the Excellent Preceptor. The business to be transacted at such emergency meeting shall be stated on the summons and no other business shall be transacted.

28 A Conclave may not constitutionally work with less than five members of the Order (including the Keeper of the Portal Preceptor) present.

29 A Conclave which is unable to work regularly may nevertheless, at the discretion of the Grand Master, be retained on the roll of the Order.

30 Each Conclave shall render to the Grand Secretary, in the format required from time to time, an Annual return of its members as at 30th June of each year, within 7 days of that date. On this return shall be recorded the names of all Brethren who have been admitted, joined or ceased to be members since the previous return. The invoice for the Annual Dues, payable to Grand Conclave as shown under Appendix B (i), will be issued in July. Failure to submit a correct Annual Return to Grand Conclave and to make the appropriate annual payment by 1st October of each year may result in the Conclave having its position being considered by the Executive Committee, which shall have the power to recommend suspension of the Warrant of the Conclave concerned, pending resolution of the matter.

31 Every Conclave shall adopt the current rituals promulgated for the use of the Order uniformly. It shall be the duty of the Regional Governors and Illustrious Preceptors of Conclaves to ensure compliance with this Regulation. Failure to comply with this particular Regulation may result in the suspension or withdrawal of recognition of the Conclave or Region concerned.

CANDIDATES

32(i) A subscribing Past First Principal of or in a Royal Arch Chapter under the Supreme Grand Chapter of England, Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Scotland, or Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland or in amity therewith.

No candidate who is resident outside the United Kingdom, the Republic of Ireland or a country in which there is an established Conclave warranted by this Grand Conclave shall be admitted, unless he shall meet the membership requirements above and until his application has been approved by the Grand Master and his dispensation for admission has been issued.
A request for such dispensation is to be made to the Grand Secretary accompanied by full details of the application.

33 The fees payable for admission as a Brother of the Order and for joining or rejoining a Conclave shall be such sums as shall from time to time be determined by Resolution in Open Conclave after Due Notice on the Summons for the relevant meeting. Provided always that a Brother shall not be admitted a Brother of the Order for a sum less than the Registration Fee payable to Grand Conclave.

34 A copy of these Constitutions and Regulations shall be presented to every Brother on his admission into the Order together with the By-Laws of the Conclave and the By-Laws of the Region.

35 Each Conclave shall have the right to elect a member of the Order to Honorary Membership provided that he shall have rendered distinguished service to the Order in general and the Conclave in particular. His name must be Proposed and Seconded in open Conclave and appear on the Summons for the following meeting. Election to Honorary Memberships must be by ballot with two black balls excluding, or such other number as provided in the Conclave By-Laws.

36 A Conclave may, on behalf of another Conclave, Promote to Preceptor a member of another Conclave providing always that:

(a) A written request to the Scribe has been received from the originating Conclave

(b) The Illustrious Preceptor of the Conclave being requested to perform a ceremony or ceremonies has given his consent.

(c) A Dispensation has been applied for and granted.

(d) Details of the Candidate(s) being received must appear on the Summons for the Meeting at which the promotion is planned, including the Name and Number of the requesting Conclave.

After promotion it shall be the duty of the Scribe of the Conclave performing the Ceremony to send confirmation, within 7 days, to the Scribe of the requesting Conclave that the candidate attended and the ceremony performed.

It shall be the duty of the Scribe of the requesting Conclave to report the promotion to the Grand Secretary and pay the necessary fee to Grand Conclave. Failure to make such report within 28 days will render the promotion invalid.

COMPLAINTS, IRREGULATIES AND APPEALS

37 Will be governed by the Constitutions in force for the time being of the United Grand Lodge of England which shall be applied mutatis mutandis.

FEES AND ACCOUNTS

38 The fees payable to Grand Conclave and to Regions shall be those set out in Appendix B, except that the amounts specified therein in respect of fees payable to Grand Conclave may be reviewed each year by the Executive Committee and any amended amounts, if approved by the Grand Master, shall become effective from 1st August next following. All such Fees payable to Grand Conclave shall be for the General Funds of the Order and shall be paid into the Banking Account of Grand Conclave and all cheques drawn on this account shall be signed by any two of the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Secretary and any other authorised signature as may be approved by the Grand Master.

40(i) Each Region shall submit annually to the Grand Secretary one copy of the Statement of Accounts of the Region accompanied by a copy of the examiner's report thereon.

(ii) Each Conclave in a Region shall submit three copies of the Statement of Accounts of the Conclave accompanied by a copy of the examiner's report annually, to the Regional Secretary, who will forward one copy to the Grand Secretary. A Conclave not in a Region shall submit a copy of the accounts accompanied by the examiner's report direct to the Grand Secretary.

(iii) Conclaves attached to Regions overseas will submit annually to the Grand Secretary one copy of the Statement of Accounts of the Conclave accompanied by a copy of the examiner's report.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND PROTOCOL

41 No motion intending to alter, add to, or annul any of these Constitutions and Regulations shall be considered unless written notice of the terms thereof shall have been received by the Grand Secretary at least one month before the meeting of Sovereign Grand Conclave and have been submitted to the Executive Committee who shall meet to consider as such before the said meeting of the Sovereign Grand Conclave. No such motion or proposal shall be effective unless affirmed by a majority of the members voting at a regular meeting of the Sovereign Grand Conclave, and if so affirmed, it shall come into force forthwith.

However, in emergency, the Grand Master shall, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, have the power to amend, alter, vary or delete any part of the Constitutions and Regulations of the Order. Any such action shall be reported to the next regular meeting of the Executive Committee and then to a meeting of the Sovereign Grand Conclave for confirmation, or otherwise.

42 A person who has in any way been connected with any Body which is quasi-Masonic, imitative of masonry, or regarded by Grand Conclave or the United Grand Lodge of England as irregular may not be admitted as a Brother of the Order except by leave of the Grand Master and any brother who subsequently becomes in any way connected with such body shall be bound to disclaim and finally sever such connection, and on failure to do so when called upon by any proper Masonic authority shall be liable to suspension or expulsion and shall not thereafter resume his place in the Order until he shall have petitioned the Grand Master, made due submission and obtained grace.

43 Subject to any direction of the Grand Master all matters affecting the government of the Order and all rights, powers, duties and obligations of the Grand Master, the Executive Committee, Regions, Conclaves and all officers and Brethren of the Order which shall not be expressly or implicitly provided for in these Constitutions and Regulations shall be governed by the Constitutions for the time being in force of the United Grand Lodge of England which shall be applied mutatis mutandis.

44 For the purposes of these Regulations:-

(i) "Direction" includes Dispensation and the same may be general or specific in any particular case or cases.

(ii) such Direction may be amended or added to or revoked or renewed or made as the Grand Master may from time to time think fit;

(iii) and any such Direction may be in writing or oral and may be communicated as the Grand Master may see fit.

45 REGALIA

The Regalia to be worn by members of the Order as specified in Appendix A shall be strictly adhered to.

APPENDIX A - REGALIA

(i) On admission to the Order a Brother shall wear his full Royal Arch Regalia and after receiving the degree of a Pilgrim shall wear the Jewel of the Order suspended from a brown collarette. He shall present himself for promotion to a Preceptor as a Pilgrim of the Order. After promotion to a Preceptor a Brother shall wear:

- the Purple Sash of the Order with purple tassels at the end and the Symbol of the of the Order in gilt coloured braid on the front and at the level of the heart.
- his PZ Jewel, Provincial Royal Arch Jewel or Grand Rank Royal Arch Jewel, but no other part of his Royal Arch regalia.
- the Jewel of the Order suspended from a white collarette.

(ii) Illustrious Preceptors and Past Illustrious Preceptors will wear the Jewel of the Order suspended from a purple collarette.
